DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

I. Claims 1-4, directed to a method that includes switching to another sheet supply when the platform is the distance from the feedhead thereby leaving the predetermined number remaining unchanged regardless of a sheet thickness;

II. Claims 5-8, directed to a method that includes determining a sheet thickness by measuring a displacement of a platform corresponding to a known number of sheet feeds by a feedhead;

III. Claims 9-10, directed to a method including determining a current platform travel before every feed;

IV. Claims 11-17, directed to a method including calculating a paper low displacement $N_L = N_T - N_K$ and storing N_L in memory;

V. Claims 18-23, directed to a method including driving a platform in steps with a lifting motor and performing sheet separating and feeding; and

VI. Claim 24, directed to a method including determining a number of feeds J already scheduled from the sheets when the platform is the distance from the feedhead.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, none of the claims appears to be generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
